

University of Nevada, Reno

The Northern Nevada International Center

Presents:

Fall 2009/Spring 2010 World Affairs Council Speaker Series

Sponsored by NNIC, Co-Sponsored by ASUN Flipside, Sage Ridge School and University of Nevada, Reno Political Science Department

MARCH

10

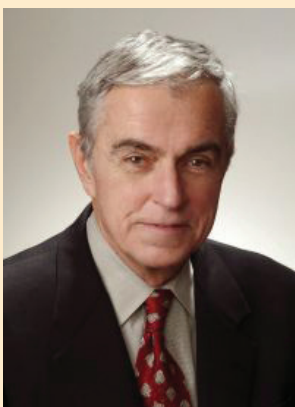

DR. RICHARD ERB

A Bankrupt World: The United States in a Volatile International Financial System

Wednesday, March 10, 2010 • 7 p.m. • Siena Hotel Spa Casino Ballroom

A VIP reception (hors d'oeuvres included with no host bar) to meet the speaker will take place from 6-7 p.m. at the Siena also. Cost for the VIP Reception $15.

Lecture Free and open to the public

Erb is a Research Professor at The University of Montana and a Senior Fellow at the World Affairs Council of Montana. He also has served as an Adjunct Instructor in the School of Business Administration and has taught senior/graduate seminars on the European Union and on international money and financial flows. His research, lectures and publications focus on a wide range of economic and financial public policy subjects including the European Union and the international monetary and financial system.

Erb has held executive positions at the International Monetary Fund, serving as U. S. Executive Director on the IMF Executive Board from 1981 to 1984 and subsequently as the Deputy Managing Director for ten years. He also served in senior economic policy positions at the U.S. Treasury Department (Deputy Assistant Secretary for Developing Nations Finance, 1976-77), the White House (Staff Assistant to the President and Assistant Director of the Council on International Economic Policy, 1971-74), and the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (Assistant to Governor Sherman Maisel, 1967-69).